Bio

Isaac B Vanarsdall was born in 1786, either in Pennsylvania or in Kentucky. He married Ann Coulter in 1812. Soon after, his daughter Olive was born (her marriage license) By 1840 Isaac was living with Ann and their three oldest children. By 1850, the children were no longer living with them, and Isaac claimed $2,000 worth of real estate. By 1860 that amount had grown to $3,000, and he claimed $1,500 worth of personal estate. He also reports owning one fourteen year old boy as a slave. Isaac died in 1866, at age 80.

There were many Isaac Vanarsdalls living in or around Mercer County, Kentucky in the early 19th century, making it difficult to say for sure what documents belonged to him and what documents belonged to the others. In an attempt to avoid including false information, I only discussed documents that referenced “Isaac B”. If anyone would like to know more, there is a book called “The Dorland Enigma Solved” by Barbara A. Bath that contains genealogical information on the Vanarsdall family and supposedly contains Isaac B. Reviews online said the book is very thoroughly sourced.
